Subject: How are you?
Hello, Willielee
I emailed you about a week ago but haven't heard back from you.
I've
consistently been treating you for the bladder issue. I'd there any improvement? Would you like me to continue?
Warm Regards,
Dr. Stiteler

Thank you so much this really looks good. Hope things are going well for you.
Did you have a good time on your Birthday.
Thanks again. willi

Here is the recipe.

Liliane

4 oz. = 8 Tablespoons   8 TB = half a cup

16 Tablespoons unsalted butter
8 large eggs
1 pound bittersweet chocolate or good dark chocolate
cut up
1/2 cup sugar
pinch of salt

Preheat oven to 350 Farenheit Butter sides and bottom of a pan, and line bottom with buttered wax paper
(it will help unmolding the cake when cold)).
Microwave chocolate (I use chocolate tablets bought at Walgreens, the brand is Ghirardelli 72% cocoa, but you can get what you like, this one is not very sweet) + 6 oz of butter cut up for one minute, then mix it up,
microwave another minute, mix it up and then microwave
for a final minute
and mix.
Combine eggs, sugar and salt in a large bowl. Beat with a mixer on medium
high speed until pale and thick, about 5 to 8 minutes.
Gently fold half of the melted chocolate mixture into the egg mixture until just combined. Then gently fold in the rest. Pour the batter into prepared pan and bake until the top is no longer shiny and barely jiggles and a toothpick inserted into the center comes out with only a few crumbs, about 40-45 minutes. Transfer to a rack and let cool completely in the pan.
Remove from pan and transfer to a platter. Dust with cocoa powder or confectioner's sugar.
I also put some foil on the edges of the pan to protect the edges of the cake so that it does not get darker on the edges.

For tidy work basket

Thread will not be wasted in tangles and you will have a tidy work basket if you follow these suggestions. Stick the thread end to the ball of thread with a quarter-inch section of transparent tape. Or clip the loose end of the ball with a small bobby pin. Snarls are avoided also when you slip a small elastic band around the ball and the loose end of the thread.

Carpet aids home's liveability

Wall-to-wall carpet probably does more to enhance the appearance and livability of a home than any other item of furnishing. And today carpet is a bargain. With the price of almost everything going up, quality carpet is actually less expensive that it was 20 years ago.

According to carpeting experts, careful selection and proper maintenance are the keys to long lasting carpet performance.

When shopping, the first thing to consider is room traffic. It goes without saying that "the more feet in a house, the more soil" and printed carpets, multi-colors and tweeds are tops for hiding soil.

In rooms where extremely heavy traffic prevails, level-loop carpets perform best. Dense and tightly tufted level loop constructions seem to defy wear. This style also is the easiest to maintain since vacuuming can usually remove visible surface soil.

The Individual Retirement Account applies to the person who is not already covered by a retirement program. It invites that person to contribute to his account up to 15% or $1,500.00 (whichever is less) of his earned income. More important, it allows him a 100% income tax deduction for his contribution.

A family of four with an income of $12,000 will pay $1,228.00 in income tax. However, if contributions of $1,500.00 are made to an Individual Retirement Account, the family will save $242.00 in income tax.

The tax computes as follows:

Ham Name Meaning

English (mainly southwestern England): variant spelling of Hamm. French: habitational name from any of the various places in northern France (Ardennes, Pas-de-Calais, Somme, Moselle) named with the Germanic word ham 'meadow in the bend of a river', 'water meadow', 'flood plain'. Dutch: variant of Hamme. Korean: there is only one Chinese character for the Ham surname. Some sources report that there are sixty different Ham clans, but only the Kangnung Ham clan can be documented. Although some records have been lost and a few generations are unaccounted for, it is known that the founding ancestor of the Ham clan is Ham Kyu, a Koryo general who fought against the Mongol invaders in the thirteenth century. His ancestor, Ham Hyok, was a Tang Chinese general who stayed in Korea after Tang China helped Shilla unify the peninsula during the seventh century. Another of Ham Hyok's ancestors, Ham Shin, accompanied Kim Chu-won, the founding ancestor of the Kangnung Kim family, to the Kangnung area, and hence the Ham clan became the Kangnung Ham clan. The first prominent ancestor from Kangnung whose genealogy can be verified is Ham Kyu, the Koryo general. Accordingly, he is regarded as the Kangnung Ham clan's founding ancestor.

Ham Immigration Information

Have you ever read the children's book "Alexander's Terrible, Horrible, No Good, Very Bad Day"? After Tuesday morning, that is what immediately came to mind. To begin with I've had a sore throat, cough, and cold for a week.

The Sat. before Easter was full getting ready for dinner the next day. Easter morning I rose earlier than normal to attend an extra service which started at 7:30am. They served Olliebolen, a Dutch treat usually only availabe at the bakery at the holidays, so I enjoyed one. Afterwards I enjoyed another! They are fist sized fried doughnuts covered in sugar/cinnamon and very tasty. Then I went home to do what I could toward the dinner. Then back to the 11 service to work at Kid's Place, their equivalent of Sunday School.

Arriving home around 12:45, Matthew called a short time later. It wasn't too long beforeTim and family arrived. After fried hazelnut flounder the girls colored eggs. I'd brought out all of the pictures I had cut out from magazines of different things one could do before putting the egg in the die. They put rubber bands around them, netting around them, drew with white crayon on them, and we added oil to the colors. They enjoyed it but were tired of it before they finished 5 eggs each. Then Rilanna really wanted to play the card game Dutch Blitz, a variation of solataire. She is my little game player!

Anyway, by that night I was pretty sick so decided to stay home all day Monday. I really needed the rest. But then came Tues. morning! I woke to my alarm ringing 50 minutes after it went off! I had to move fast to get to the school to volunteer. In the process I dropped the backing to my earring and could not find it. Then I had trouble finding another one off of another earring that would fit. Finally, I picked up my pile of stuff for running errands and made it to the car only to discover that the little card or chip which holds pictures from my tablet was missing. I had put it in a small baggie. I looked in the car all over and then followed the way I'd come back into the house. Nothing! I had to get to school and managed to only be 10 minutes late.

Afterward, I dropped off a book at the library and then went to The Mail Box to mail a package. As I was easing out of the parking spot, instead of watching where I was going, I was trying to see if I could go around the side of the building and managed to back into a cement post. Boy did it make a loud noise even though I wasn't going very fast! Everyone turned to look. Very embarrassing! There was just a small dent in the fender fortunately. By that point I just wanted to get home and stay there before anything else could go wrong. And I felt like I was outside of myself looking on.
To top things off I found out I had forgotten to pay my Condo dues.

The rest of the day was fine except for not being able to find the chip and feeling very sick. So often God will answer my prayers about lost things by putting into my mind where to look. But this time there was silence. Late that night came the thought to look under the car seats better. So I did that the next morning and there was the baggy with the chip!

That's my story and I'm sticking with it. Hope it brought a smile to your face or a chuckle. I'm still sick but next week is spring break here so I don't have much planned and hopefully can finally get rid of this crud.

Love,
Debbie

Turner's and Captain Anothony Langston, Pete Whiting's Swamp and Matterdam [Matedaquin] Creek. The first mentioned patent was granted for the transportation of eight persons (whose names are not given) into the colony and the second patent for the transportation of twenty persons (whose names are likewise not given) into the colony.[1] On October 20, 1684, a patent was issued to Mr. Richard Littlepage for 871 acres in New Kent County on south side of the York River on north side of Chickohominy main swamp adjoining Moses Davis, Henry Wyatt, William Bassett and James Oustin; due for the transportation of eighteen persons into the colony.[2]

Richard^1 Littlepage (who received the patents above mentioned in 1663/4 and 1684) was sheriff of New Kent County prior to 1674 (as he was at that date referred to as "late sheriff of New Kent")[3] and member of the House of Burgess from New Kent County 1685.[4] Richard^1 Littlepage died in St. Peter's Parish, New Kent County, April 20, 1688.[5]

[1] Register of the Land Office, Richmond, Patent Book, No. 5, pages 376 and 379.

[2] Ibid., Patent Book, No. 7, page 400. Richard Littlepage (who died in April, 1688) also quite evidently owned lands in New Kent County which he acquired by purchase; but the New Kent County records are missing. He was a resident of New Kent County and his home was in that county. It may be that he lived in the neighborhood of "Cumberland," which was at a later date the home of his son, Captain Richard Littlepage (see note on "Cumberland," post page 410). Be that as it may, the lands granted by the patents of March 14, 1663/4, and March 24, 1663/4, to Turner and Littlepage (referred to in text above) are shown by references to Totopotomoy's Creek and Matterdam [evidently Matterdaquin] to have been within the boundaries of the present Hanover County, at the dates of these patents a part of New Kent. The patent of October 20, 1684, was for lands in the present extreme lower end of New Kent County—as is evidenced by reference to south side of York River and north side of Chickahominy Main Swamp.

Obituary of Loren Elmer WOODSIDE

Posted 16 Dec 2014 by Tycine1

Loren Elmer Woodside passed away on September 29, 2012 as a result of an auto accident following a day of hunting.

Loren was born in Spokane, Washington, August 19, 1930 to Lyda and Frank Woodside. Frank managed a crew of lineman for the Washington Water Power Co., and they moved several times. As a result, Loren attended Grade School in Lind, Middle School in Davenport, and High School in Ritzville. He graduated from Ritzville High School in 1949.

Since his dad worked for the Washington Water Power, as a kid he had summer jobs that included hoeing weeds around power poles. This gave him lots of experience killing rattlesnakes. The presence of hobos during the depression era was a significant memory from Loren's childhood. They passed by their family home seeking handouts and he recalled pitching rocks at them by the Lind railroad station until one day when one such hobo caught him.

While in high school he delivered groceries for the local grocery store. As a result he knew everyone in town. He also attended most of the dances in the county.

He was in the Seabees branch of the Navy during the Korean Conflict from 1950 to 1954, as part of the supply chain. He was stationed at Subic Bay in the Philippines.

While in the Navy, he received electrical training, and after being discharged worked for the REA in Othello. In 1954 he married Pat Cline. In 1957 he realized his life long dream to become a farmer, and began farming in the Lind area, where he and Pat raised their family. They were married for 23 years.

For a few years Loren raised pigs. His children have memories of chasing the pigs back into the pen during a dust storm.

As a child he often asked for a horse, and his father would tell him no, because they had no place to keep one. Loren would respond saying that they could keep it in the garage. But his own kids were delighted when one day he showed up riding a black pony, which was the beginning of the family's adventures with horses.
